

Fertilizer Products

Intertek offers reliable and scientifically objective advice and analysis, ensuring your products are shepherded through the pre-market approval and commercialization processes with minimal roadblocks.

Background

Critical evaluation of potential animal, human and environmental health risks of fertilizer and supplement products as well as strict compliance with jurisdictional regulatory requirements are vital for companies marketing both new and previously registered fertilizer and supplement products in the global market.

Your challenge

Key challenges facing the agriculture industry when developing fertilizers include:

- Development of a successful global strategy in order to achieve the most expedient route to market in multiple jurisdictions
- The correct classification of ingredients for regulatory and registration purposes
- Identification of the appropriate regulatory route by which to gain market acceptance in a given jurisdiction
- Compiling and presenting scientific data in order to comply with regulatory requirements

Our solutions

Intertek provides our clients with necessary international support to fulfill global administrative and technical reporting requirements. Our experts scrutinize regulatory initiatives and assist clients in developing strategies that are in compliance with targeted jurisdictions.

Our services include:

- Regulatory strategy development
- Pre-registration screening and preparation of new or amended product regulatory submissions
- Management, tracking, and shepherding of product registrations with regulatory authorities
- Assessment of the potential risks to users, bystanders and the environment
- Preparation of scientific rationale to support waiver requests
- Design, placement and monitoring of test protocols to demonstrate quality, safety, and fate
- Canadian Agent Services for foreign products registered with the Canadian Food Inspection Agency (CFIA)
